Wellbeing & Health Virtual Coach

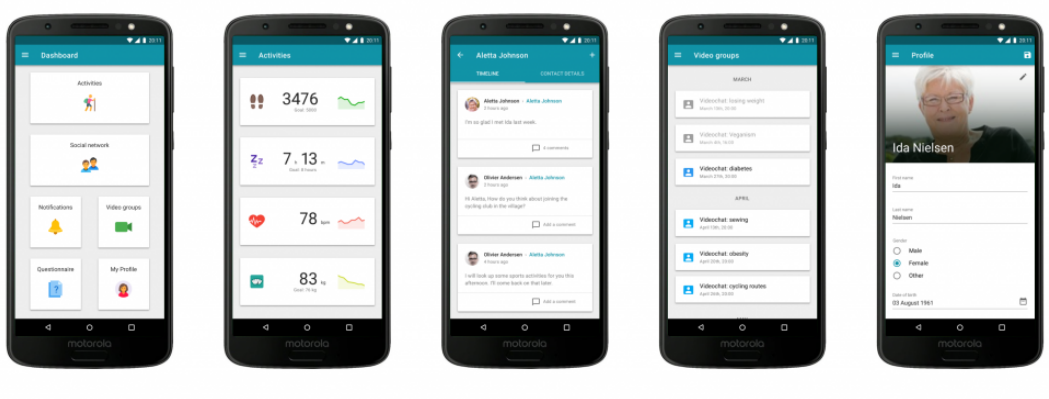

Newlsetter Summer 2019

Welcome to WellCo!

WellCo is a virtual coach providing a personalised advice, guidance and follow-up for users enabling the adoption of healthier behaviours that help to maintain or improve their physical, cognitive, mental and social well-being for as long as possible.

We are happy to announce that we have deployed the first version of the coach along with disseminating our work broadly.
See what we have been up to and become a WellCo user!
